An Irish Pagan Blessing

An Irish Pagan Blessing

*May the saddest day of your future be no worse
 Than the happiest day of your past.*

*May the roof above us never fall in.
 And may the friends gathered below it never fall out.*

*May you have warm words on a cold evening,
 A full moon on a dark night,
 And the road downhill all the way to your door.*

*May there be a generation of children
 On the children of your children.*

*May you live as long as you want,
 And never want as long as you live.*

*May the Lord & Lady keep you in their hands
 And never close their fist too tight.*

*May your neighbors respect you,
 Trouble neglect you,
 The angels protect you,
 And heaven accept you.*

*May the Irish hills caress you.
 May her lakes and rivers bless you.
 May the luck of the Irish enfold you.
 May the blessings of the Gods behold you.*

*May the Goddess be with you and bless you,
 May you see your children's children,
 May you be poor in misfortune, rich in blessings.
 May you know nothing but happiness
 From this day forward.*

*May you always have work for your hands to do.
 May your pockets hold always a coin or two.
 May the sun shine bright on your windowpane.
 May the rainbow be certain to follow each rain.
 May the hand of a friend always be near you.
 And may the Goddess fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.*
